HOC SIGNO FORTUNA

BALTIMORE. THURSDAY, November 15, 1821.

Rise of Tickets.

The few Tickets remaining for sale in the Grand State Lottery, will be rapidly advanced, from the present price FIFTEEN DOLLARS. On Thursday, the 22d, a rise to Eighteen Dollars will take place, and on the 30th, a further rise to $20 or $25 if any remain for sale. The great capital prize of FORTY THOUSAND DOLLARS is still to be drawn—and the whole lottery will be finished in four weeks. The wheels have gained upwards of 17,000 DOLLARS.

All orders dated and post-marked, previous to the rise of tickets, will be supplied at the rate at which they could be purchased in this city on the date respectively—address

J. I. COHEN, Jr.

Secretary to the Managers—Baltimore.

The Next Lottery.

On the fourth page of this day's Register will be found the scheme of the fifth class of the WASHINGTON MONUMENT LOTTERY. In presenting which, the Managers rely with much confidence, on the support of their fellow citizens; the object of the lottery, alone, is sufficient to elicit the patronage of the American people, independent of the merits of the scheme in a pecuniary point of view.

Tickets and Shares are now ready for delivery—all orders should be addressed

J. I. COHEN, Jr.

Secretary to the Managers—Baltimore.

Twenty-fourth Drawing.

No. 10855 was the first drawn number on this day's drawing, and agreeably to the Scheme is entitled to ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS—we are happy to announce to our distant friends that the ticket is owned in Fredericktown, Md. where it was sent by mail, on the 8th of June last.

DECISION OF THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

BALTIMORE, 5th Nov. 1821.

Whereas, much inconvenience has heretofore been experienced by persons engaged in foreign trade and shipping, for the want of some settled principle respecting the delivery of goods west of Jones' Falls, from vessels drawing more water than can get there. And whereas, it is necessary that some just and uniform custom should prevail, and be established—Therefore,

Resolved, That from and after this date, all bills of lading for goods on freight, shall be considered fully complied with (if they express nothing to the contrary) when said goods for which they are given, shall be landed on a public or private wharf at Fells' Point, or put on board of a scow or lighter alongside the vessel, at the option of the consignees.

The Supreme Judicial Court of Massachusetts has decided, that notice sent by mail to an endorser the day subsequent to that on which a note falls due, is sufficient notice.

It has also decided, that a Bank is not liable for any thefts committed by officers of the Bank on money specially deposited, as the Bank does not warrant the honesty of its officers, but only that they shall be skilful in their employment. But, if a person make a deposit of a keg of dollars, and the cashier leave the Bank with the doors open, and any person should enter and steal the money, then the Bank would be liable.

The low price of bread stuffs, is causing considerable changes in rural economy. A gentleman has lately taken a farm in Chenango county. New-York, which he intends to stock with one thousand merino sheep. Another gentleman has taken a tract in the same county, which he intends to stock with five hundred. One hundred and fifty full blooded merinos have already been sent on to it, with a number of neat cattle of the full Bakewell breed.

Public Execution.—On Friday, the 19th of October, at Princess Ann, Somerset county, Md. Jenny, a negro woman, nearly seventy years old, suffered the punishment prescribed by law, for a murder committed some months since, on the body of another negro, named Sidney Williams. The circumstances which led to the detection of the old woman, were some spots of blood on her hat, the print of her fingers on the fence, and the tracks in the yard near the dead body, being exactly the size of her shoe. She persisted, to the latest moment of her existence, in declaring her innocence.

Caution.—The public are cautioned against receiving counterfeit one hundred dollar bills of the Pennsylvania bank.—The engraving of Murray, Drafter and Fairman, is extremely well imitated, so as to defy scrutiny.—Signature of "Norris, President," pretty well done—but that of "Chauncey, Cashier," and the filling in of the note badly executed. It is probable there may be more of other denominations. [Petersburg Int.]

LATEST FROM LIVERPOOL.

NEW-YORK, NOV. 7—Noon.

The ship Euphrates, Stoddard, arrived below this morning, in 44 days from Liverpool, and is at anchor outside the bar, waiting for the tide. The Revenue Cutter came up from her at 12 o'clock, and we learn that Captain Stoddard informed the boarding officer of the cutter that Flour had gone back to the old price, having fallen from 5 to 10s. per bbl. and the crops had been got in much better than was expected. We learn no further accounts of the markets, and have no political news. The E. no doubt sailed on Sunday the 22d of Sept.—Gazette.

FROM THE EVENING POST.

The following is an extract from a circular of the latest date brought by the ship:

Liverpool, Sept. 22, 1821.

SIR: For the last three days the corn market has been very flat, owing to a return of fine weather, and to-day it has been extremely dull, and prices quite nominal. The average price of wheat for the week ending the 15th inst. was only 61s. 6d. per qr. and the London market fell 5s. per qr. on the 19th. The prospects of the opening of the ports to the United States, either in November or February, is now so much lessened that wheat and flour, in bond, are quite unsaleable, but sweet flour is nominally at 38, sour at 28. Yesterday ten thousand bushels Canada wheat sold at 10s. 3d. To-day 10s. would be gladly taken for other parcels, but no offer, which shews much uncertainty as to the ports opening to Canada. The continuance of the present fine weather would damp the market.

Cotton has been in good demand this week, but without any material alteration, and the market closes in rather more willingness on the part of holders to meet the buyers. The sales of to-day are about fifteen hundred bales, one-half of which are Uplands. No change of moment is looked for at present, unless the further accounts of your crops be very unfavorable.

Ashes are held more firmly, in consequence of some considerable orders from the Continent, but no advance is given—prime pots 39, pearls 39 to 39 6.

Rice very dull, and has given way with grain generally. Yours, &c.

MURRAY & LATHAM.

The President's commission to Gen. Jackson is published in the Pensacola Floridian of the 15th ultimo. It formally invests the general, under the authority of the act of congress, empowering the President so to do, with "all the military, civil and judicial powers and authorities heretofore exercised by the governor and captain general and intendant of Cuba, and by the governors of East and West Florida, within the said provinces respectively."

There are now printed in the state of Ohio forty-two newspapers. Forty-two years ago there were scarcely as many inhabitants of the territory comprised in the state that could read a newspaper.

NEW-YORK, NOV. 9.

By the steam-boat Fire Fly last evening, we learn that the Lake Erie steam-boat, Capt. Rogers, went ashore in a violent gale of wind on the morning of the 1st instant, on a sandy beach about 80 rods from Buffalo Light House, and was supposed to have bilged. The passengers and crew were saved.—The damage done to the cargo very trifling. Her engine and furniture have received no injury.

PHILADELPHIA, NOV. 9.

Com. Bainbridge has been appointed to the command of the naval station in this city, in the place of the late Commodore Murray.
